“MARAYA” which translates as “many mirrors” is the newest launch to hit the charter collection. This 2008, 54m motor yacht offers the very latest innovations in technology along with the rich and luxurious comforts expected from a charter vessel and an abundance of both internal and external spaces for her guests to escape, relax and fully enjoy their freedom onboard.

The yacht's contemporary styling and crisp minimal interior designs by “Claude Misser” present the guests with elegant curves and strong vertical lines combined with exquisite materials and countless refined finishing touches.

Some of the yacht's more striking features include; a Master state room balcony, which can be lowered whilst at anchor to provide a completely private external relaxation area for the principle guests, over 450m<sup>2</sup> of external space consisting of 5 separate deck areas, each with their own on demand entertainments and a great selection of toys ranging from a professional ski/wake boat to a pair of radio controlled racing yachts.
